Designed by Felix De Weldon, architect of the famous Iwo Jima Memorial, this huge bronze landmark of the National Monument pays tribute to the valiant soldiers who gave their lives defending the country during the communist insurgency in the 1950s.

The King's Palace commonly known as the Istana Negara, is the official residence of the Yang Di-Pertuan Agong, a Malay title usually translated as "Supreme Head". See the Palace from outside the main gate where the Royal Guards, dressed in white and red, inspired uniforms derived from the two heritage of Malay and British.

Located at the heart of the colonial district of Kuala Lumpur is the Dataran Merdeka or Independence Square which features a 95m flag pole - the tallest flag pole in the world. It is marked by a marble plaque located in the southern region of the square. Take a final photo stop at the magnificent Petronas Twin Towers, which is one of the modern day super structures.
